Elevate Vision:

Reaching Students, Building Lives

Reaching Students = Students being saved & baptized

Building Lives = Students being discipled & taking next steps

This document serves as the guiding principles and practices for how we plan & execute weekly services. Our desire is to be intentional to create moments for students to encounter Jesus and make lasting memories.

FUNNY CONNECT

Have you ever thought, "I want to have great friendships?"

If you fall down and hurt yourself, a friend will help you up. But a best friend will laugh and take a picture!

Funny prom story...

Life is meant to have deep rich friendships!

FELT NEED

We all want good friends, most of us don't know how to MAKE good friends. "How do I have great friendships?"

Here is reality for a lot of young people today: more virtually connected, but no one actually knows us. We crave to be known.

Why is it so important to talk about friendships?

YOUR FRIENDS DETERMINE YOUR FUTURE.

- Your destiny is tied to your relationships
- You become who you hang around.

Proverbs 13:20 (NLT)

Walk with the wise and become wise; associate with fools and get in trouble.

- Choose your friends, don't let friendships just "happen" to you

Proverbs 12:26 (NIV)

The righteous choose their friends carefully

- Are you wise... or are you getting in trouble? Look at your friends!

WE NEED GOOD FRIENDS! But we often struggle to make good friends.

BIG WHY QUESTION

Why Do We Struggle To Make Good Friends?

- Insecurity - putting ourselves out there can be scary. Instead, we stay isolated.
- Selfishness - we're just looking for our needs to be met, instead of serving others.
- Gossip / Harsh Words - biggest friendship killer. Not using our words wisely in friendships.

Proverbs 16:28 (NIV)

A perverse person stirs up conflict, and a gossip separates close friends.

- Unforgiveness - bitterness / resentment grows in your heart and separates you from others
- Unresolved Conflict - you have an issue with a friend and you don't resolve it in a healthy way. Avoiding conflict doesn't make it go away.

Funny self deprecating friendship story here...

There's a different way to do friendships! It's a mindset shift. It's a shift from "How can I FIND good friends?" to "How can I BE a good friend?" From "ME" to "OTHERS."

Jesus gives us what we call "The Golden Rule"

BIBLE CONTEXT

Jesus is talking with his disciples one day all about relationships with people

- Loving your enemies
- Treating others well
- Not judging others unfairly

And in this whole talk about relationships with people, He makes a key statement to help us that we now call THE GOLDEN RULE. For hundreds of years, it's been known as "the Golden Rule" because it has so much value when you apply this to the relationships in your life!

BIBLE

Luke 6:31 (NLT)

Do to others as you would like them to do to you.

- It's so simple to understand, but often hard to do.
- It's the mindset shift from ME to OTHERS. From FINDING a good friend to BEING a good friend.

I love how the Bible puts this in the Message translation

Luke 6:31 (MSG)

Here is a simple rule of thumb for behavior: Ask yourself what you want people to do for you; then grab the initiative and do it for them!

MAIN POINT

Be The Friend That You Want To Have!

People who have great friends aren't focused on HAVING great friends, but BEING a great friend!

Qualities of a great friendship: Loyalty, kindness, being there for you, thoughtful, trustworthy. Instead of LOOKING for that, BE that for others!

HIGH SCHOOL MESSAGE NOTES EXAMPLE

The people who are richest relationally are the ones who are focused on being a good friend & adding value to others!

Funny story here...

Be the friend you want others to be to you.

You reap what you sow, you get back over time what you give to others over time.

- Are you encouraging?
- Are you sharing your real feelings?
- Are you challenging yourself and others to grow?
- Are you growing closer to God?

It doesn't start with THEM, it starts with ME. I choose to be a good friend!

ANTICIPATE OBJECTIONS

"I've tried that...it doesn't work."

- Stay faithful in it
- Sow, then reap
- It's like the person who says, "I've tried working out, and I didn't get any better looking."
 - You tried for a month
 - How about stay consistent in habits and diet for a year and then see the results
- Living this way, you won't see results right away, but you will over time.

In your friendships, be a leader! Leaders go first!

Be A Leader In your Friendships!

- Don't wait for them to do nice things for you... you go first!
- Don't wait for someone else to invite you to something... you go first!
- Don't wait for your friend to ask for forgiveness... you go first!
- Don't wait for someone to ask you to sit with them... you go first!

Extend friendship to others and you will have great friendships!

"Seek long and trusting friendships by being happy and helpful for the other guy's success" — Coach Jim Harbough

Let's make this practical before we close...

PRACTICAL "HOW TO" SOLVE TO PROBLEM QUESTION

How Can You Be A Good Friend?

1. Choose Your Words Wisely

The words you use with your friends can either build them up or tear them down.

- Choose your words carefully.
- Gossip or harsh words can ruin a friendship
- Too much sarcasm can be negative for friendships.
- Use your words to lift others up, not tear them down.

Ephesians 4:29 (MSG)

Watch the way you talk. Let nothing foul or dirty come out of your mouth. Say only what helps, each word a gift.

2. Challenge Appropriately

A good friend tells you what you need to hear, not just what you want to hear. It's better to have a friend that challenges you than coddles you and only tells you what you want to hear.

Proverbs 27:6 (ESV) "Faithful are the wounds of a friend."

- Personal story here...

3. Point Friends To Jesus

Be the friend that leads others to Jesus!

Are your friends closer to Jesus because of you? Do you inspire a desire for God in your friends?

PERSONAL STORY

When I was a teenager, I didn't see the importance of this. I would be sarcastic all the time just to try to get people to laugh. I remember one night hanging with friends that I said a sarcastic remark to someone that made them leave the room crying. When she came back and I apologized, she said, "It's alright, I've just come to expect that from you and I'll deal with it."

- I decided then and there, I don't want to be that type of person.

I want to BE a good friend, and use my words to BUILD UP and not TEAR DOWN.

I want to encourage you: be the friend to BUILDS UP and encourage others, not BELITTLE and TEAR OTHERS DOWN.
